Everything (2)

Unity (2)

The sense of community, my children feel safe and are learning peacefully

The Director is involved in helping the kids in morning

Everyone is nice

The attention to the students

I feel like my son is being developed as a whole child, not just a student!

People

The wonderful sense of community it provides my little one and our entire family!

The education that my child is receiving and the communication from staff regarding everything that is going on at school.

Staff

The community and education

The environment is great, feels like a big family

Nurturing disciplined environment

The Faculty and Staff

School families and sense of familiarity

Feeling of a Community

I love the community feel.

Warm, friendly staff.

The teachers and Dr. Brown's vision.

The quality of the people - faculty, staff, parents, children, overall we are really happy!

Community of SRL. The messaging of charity and compassion the kids learn by being a part of this school community.

That my child is in a safe and loving environment and there is still innocence with the kids

Community!!!!

The friendly atmosphere and faith centered learning and ideals

Christian education

The teachers and staff

The school atmosphere

Offers a variety to all children.

The community feeling.

High level of preparedness from emails to carlines to curriculum

The relative innocence of the children.

Community

Discipline and the faith aspect

The best part of St Rose is the improvement of the academic curriculum.

The new principal

Family atmosphere and religious education with quality education

Very nice and safe place for our kids to grow and learn

Family atmosphere

Family friendly

Smaller classrooms, faith as part of the foundation

Everyone from the staff, teachers and administration pitches in around the school. In addition, the education, discipline and the security.

Discipline

St. Rose is like a family with a great history in the community

The communication between parents and teachers.

Keeping tradition is what I like the most about SRL as well as the sense of community.

Community, tradition, values

Community, values, I appreciate that Dr. Brown is present always and everywhere

Teaching of values, low key attitude of teachers and parents, seeing my daughter happy, and the support (emotional and educational) you provide when they face learning challenges.

Nurturing family atmosphere, small, students are kind to each other.

Discipline

Values instilled

The academics are top notch. I have seen a significant difference in my children in only three weeks.

Sense of community

How awesome the school and other families are

Close knit sense of community

Education, respect, and discipline

I love everything. My child feels safe and loved.

It is a great place for children to learn not only academics but about being a good person.

The family focus

The community

We have seen a lot of good changes since Dr. Brown's arrival. The moral values that they teach our kids.

Feels like a family

My daughter seems to be getting a good education and to be happy at St. Rose. I like the pleasant environment and staff. Her first grade teacher went above and beyond. I am hoping second grade will be as great.

It is a safe and friendly environment

The faith-based atmosphere of loving care for the students.

The Catholic education and morals the staff and families represent.
